PAKKA

Island Bamboo™ uses only 100% premium Pakkawood to design our PAKKA line of kitchen utensils, serve ware and gadgets. Pakkawood is crafted with intense heat, pressure and detail, allowing multiple layers of FDA approved hardwood to fuse together seamlessly, resulting in a moderately heavy, extremely durable product.

PAKKA is a colorful water-resistant material that will bring style to your kitchen.

- *FDA approved for complete food safety
Will not fray at the edges or discolor*
- Infused with stylish color patterns that won't leach into your food
- PAKKA feels sturdy and solid in the hand
- Stain, odor and heat resistant making it easy to use and clean

To clean, simply handwash with warm, soapy water and dry with a soft cloth. With proper care, these durable PAKKA utensils will last a lifetime.

PLASTIC FREE

Put an end to plastic waste with reusable, disposable bamboo plates... attractive, portable, and best of all, bio-degradable. These plates are so good looking they bring fresh, modern style to picnics, parties and barbecues. Sturdy enough for a few uses with quick and easy hand washing in between. Once discarded, they naturally biodegrade within 4 to 6 months.

Put an end to plastic waste with bamboo flatware... attractive, portable, and best of all, reusable. Perfect for camping, work, RVs & Boats.
